

A new travel enthusiast is on the scene, EurWay Tours, founded by its current President Juanita Harvin, ready to provide you with customized and imaginative itineraries for individuals and groups traveling to Europe and around the globe. We specialize in personal itineraries for small groups, organizations, specializing in "Military Reminiscing Tours", culinary cooking weeks; castle tours, automobile factory tours, and of course shopping trips. We are the family oriented travel agency ready to assist you in planning and coordinating all of your trip details from start to finish.

Juanita's Tours offers you the following:

- Full service Travel Agency
- Quick, thorough, knowledgeable responses to calls and questions
- · Resourceful and well-traveled agents
- International Translation services
- Military Family Friendly

We don't merely book your travel; we can help you realize your travel experiences with our own tour guides/translators.

With many years of protocol and travel experiences overseas, we are looking forward in helping you plan your adventure.

"We recommend EurWay Travel to experience REAL European life. Food, culture and traditions."

- Oweida Cole

As a knowledgeable protocol officer and tour guide I am internationally recognized as a reliable source for creating outstanding travel packages for travelers and getting you to those unusual cultural experiences. Having lived overseas for over 46 years, we have so much we would like to show you.
